The Street-for-Knight wamp, pulled off lip Manager Griffith last Saturday, looms up better than ever from a Washington standpoint, now that it is known the catcher the Highlanders are going to tose in to bind the bargain is Avin Williams, which last season pastimed in Boston as a member of the Res Sos. Siew McAster was ever induced to part with Williams seems to be a mystery, for if ever a promising young last player kicked up the dust on a big league disnord it was this same Williams. It is sayek with Boston last season, was a whole lot better than the ordinary, and mich better than the ordinary, and mich better than the official records reveal.

Local Twirler Secured by Bob Doyle for Sally Circuit Club.

OTHER AMATEUR GOSSIP

Waiter Hughes, one of the best amateur pitchers ever developed in the District, will shortly sign a contract with the Savannah club of the South Atlantic Lesgue. This was learned from Scout Bob Doyle late last night.

Doyle has received a telegram from the Savannah club asping that Hughes' contract was on the way, and from the Savannah club asping that Hughes' contract was on the way, and from this it is taken that Hughes will sign some time to-day.

Hughes pitched gift-edged ball for the Car Department team of the R. R. Y. M. C. A. League last summer, winning the majority of the games for that outfit, and leading the railroud league. In the Independence circuit, where he twired for the St. Paul aggregation, Hughes was the best Manager Parsley had, doing the major portion of the hurling and slways delivering the goods. Although but a roungster, Hughes gives promise of developing into a coraling good writer, and the Savannah team is to be congratulated on signing him for the centing season.

Bub Doyle is generaling with another local lad to send to an International League club, but Bob would not name the youngster yesterday. This lad is a pitcher of some renown having made a record on the sand lots last year. Doyle promises to announce the youngster's name in a few days.

Another star ball player will join theorem of ampires this season, Dick Wood ing the lad in question.

Dick will be remembered for his good work while at Central High and on the local sand jots, and also while with the Winchester team. One of the best throwing catchers ever developed in this section. Dick was a good sticker, being connected with moret has one permant-winning sagregation in the matteur game. Dick will more than likely significant with either the Olyacpia or Sunday School League.

Georgetown Meet.

O Streeters Hold Trinls for Coming Georgetown Meet.

Unofficial relay trials were held yesterday at Central High School to get a line on available material. These trials meant mothing so far as the team to represent the Oregetown meet is concerned. Capit. Fritz Reuter and Blackistone were commeted on as sureplaces, but those athletes have absidoned the track until the outdoor season begins. George Hamilton will, in all probability, be the anchor man. Van Dyne, who won the open 460 in Baitimore Saturday night, is another one counted on to make the team.

The light from now on will be a hard ope for the other two places. Thibots will be a contender for a place. Thibots will be a contender for a place a good account of himself should jue be called on. Dan Kelly, who played on the football team last fall, will must likely be the other man where Couch Foley will select. Couch. Foley intends to make the relay a speciality in the Georgetown meet, owing to the fact lith the local achient-hoys do not have much clanner with the handleaps, they receive in the indoor genue.
